

CATTARAUGUS REGION
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

GROWINGGOOD.

Annual Report 2011

The Beauty of Giving

Plant flowers in others' gardens and your life becomes a bouquet!

The Cattaraugus Region Community Foundation is made up of many generous donors, each with a passion to make a difference in our region. By planting their seeds of generosity, they create a garden that provides beautiful bouquets of "good." As our slogan says, they are "Growing Good."

*Carol Stitt, Board President;
Michelle Joyce, Staff Accountant;
Karen Niemic Buchheit, Executive Director; and Ryan Michelle Wilcox, Assistant Executive Director*

As the Foundation begins its 17th year, we reflect on the generosity of so many donors that has made so much good possible.

With more than $346,000 in gifts donated to the Foundation in 2011, the total contributions feeding this garden that is our community foundation is now at more than $9 million.

In 2011 the Foundation board awarded more than $368,000 in grants, bringing the grand total for grants in the past 16 years to more than $3.2 million.

The beauty of the Foundation's grant making is that the majority of it results from endowments, permanent funds that provide an annual revenue stream for dozens and dozens of deserving individuals such as scholarship recipients through named scholarship funds and veterans through the Southern Tier Military Support Group Fund as well as organizations such as the Olean General Hospital, Cattaraugus County Arts Council, Olean-Bradford YMCA, Olean City School District, SPCAs in Cattaraugus and Allegany counties, Salamanca Area Senior Center, Olean Little League and Rebuilding Together.

At CRCF we believe in the beauty of giving.

We see its impact in small and large ways each day and over time.

We see it in the faces of donors...their eyes sparkle with joy in helping and making a difference.

We see it in the words of appreciation of recipients...and sense it in their hearts as they realize what is now possible.

We thank both our continuing donors and new donors whose philanthropy provides beauty every day throughout our region.

Growing Good in our Community

What is beautiful in your eyes? See how your dream for a more beautiful community can become a reality at CRCF with your own fund or by adding to an existing fund.

Here are just a few reasons people have started funds or donated to funds recently:

-  To provide scholarships for future teachers...
-  To provide food, holiday gifts, heating and other supplies for those who are living in poverty or are homeless...
-  To bring community members together to fulfill a common cause – building a community center, preserving local history, ensuring children have the opportunity to learn and explore new heights...
-  To memorialize or honor a loved one...

With one fund you can address a wide range of charitable interests to benefit one or a number of needs and nonprofit organizations.

You can make your fund permanent by setting it up as an endowment. It's beautiful forever. And tax-deductible, too.

New Funds

The following funds were established at CRCF between January 1, 2011, and June 30, 2012:

Allegany Nordic Fund – to help improve the Art Roscoe Trails at Allegany State Park.

Cattaraugus County Law Enforcement Foundation Fund – to provide additional support to law enforcement personnel, including grants for equipment and training, and also to support community relations efforts including the holiday-time Santa's Sheriff Program.

Community Warmth Fund – to purchase portable sources of heat and/or used to address general heating, utility or weatherization needs for needy individuals.

Cuba Lake Area Young Sailors' Fund – to support the youth sailing program housed at the Cuba Lake Yacht Club through instruction and with supplies and equipment.

Horse Resource Fund – to help people and horses in need and to help improve equine welfare in Cattaraugus County.

John Muir Book Fund – to preserve the locally-owned John Muir book collection and to house it at the Portville Free Library.

Olean Meditation Center Fund – by an Olean area meditation group to fund the construction and operation of a meditation center in Olean.

Ben & Rose Schwabenbauer Educational Scholarship – established by Ben & Rose Schwabenbauer to provide a scholarship for graduates of Olean and Otto-Eldred high schools who plan to major in elementary education.

I believe in the beauty of giving...
 My mother told me that when you balance your inside with your outside then you're even with the world. All we have been given is a gift and it is our duty to share with others, and the sharing helps us grow.

CRCF board and staff thank Greater Olean Area Chamber of Commerce for its continued support.

Events 2011-2012

Friends of the Foundation Luncheon

More than 120 people gathered to celebrate the legacy of a leading local philanthropist, as well as to congratulate the Foundation's 2011 scholarship students at the fourth annual Friends of the Foundation Luncheon.

The Foundation board posthumously honored Mildred Milliman, a Portville native who anonymously created a $6 million endowed fund that benefits more than 30 local and national charities each year.

The board also recognized the 2011 recipients of awards from its scholarship funds (listed on page 15).

Ms. Milliman's friends Sue Kallenbach of Olean and Karen Fohl, CRCF board member, shared Millie's story at the Friends of the Foundation Luncheon.

Higgins named honorary director

CRCF members Mike Kasperski, treasurer; Wendy Brand, vice president; Joe Higgins, honorary director; Carol Stitt, board president; and Doug Price, secretary; at the board's annual meeting. Mr. Higgins was a founding member of the Foundation.

Salute to Olean

CRCF staff Ryan Michelle Wilcox and Karen Niemic Buchheit with Olean YMCA Salute to Olean Award recipients Dr. Yogini Kothari, CRCF board member, and Betty Pappas, Rose Pappas Foundation Fund donor.

Foundation boards meet

Board and staff members of Allegany County Area Foundation, CRCF, Chautauqua Region Community Foundation and Northern Chautauqua Region Foundation met at the Dresser-Rand Challenger Learning Center in Allegany, NY, to network and discuss challenges facing their foundations. The event included a Mission to Mars hosted by the Challenger Learning Center.

June Diethrick, Chautauqua Region Community Foundation operations officer, and Audra Stevens, CRCF board member.

Nonprofit Networking Day

The first annual Nonprofit Networking Day hosted by CRCF Nov. 4, 2011, at Jamestown Community College in Olean's Cutco Theater was a huge success. More than 100 area nonprofit staff, board members and volunteers met to network and attend learning sessions.

Richard Reilly, Olean Meditation Center board member, and Carol Stitt, CRCF board president, at Nonprofit Networking Day.

Estate Planning seminar

St. Bonaventure University professors Don Swanz and Mike Kasperski, CRCF Treasurer, joined students Dan Eichenauer, Ashley Ross, Melissa DiLaura and Kristin Burke at the Knox Tax Institute Marcellus Shale and Estate Planning Seminar hosted by the Foundation in April 2012.
